

WHO ARE THE ADULT SPIRITUAL DIRECTORS OF LOG?

Warren and Elisa Takaya (Directors, 28 years at LOG, various churches): Warren is a math teacher at La Cumbre Junior High and Elisa is a TK teacher at Loma Vista Elementary. Both attended LOG when they were in high school, and all 3 of their daughters have been LOG Co-Leaders. At LOG Warren leads worship & Elisa takes care of administration. Both mentor and support the Leadership Team, and their favorite part of LOG is seeing all of the LOGgers feel God's welcoming love.

Ryan Radujko (Spiritual Director, 6 years, Free Methodist Church): LOG Leadership Team member back in high school. Happily married to his wife Megan (see below) & currently working for the Educational Teach Department at SB Unified School District. At LOG he helps mentor the students, and his favorite part of LOG is Saturday evening worship during the retreat.

Megan Radujko (Spiritual Director, 4 years, Free Methodist Church): Married to Ryan (see above) and currently in a clinical psychology Masters program at Antioch University. She is excited to continue learning about LOG and have a lot of fun with the high schoolers. Her favorite thing about LOG is the joy and peace that we experience from being loved by everyone around us.

Miranda Rodriguez (Facilities Director, 16 years, Goleta Presbyterian Church): LOG Leadership Team member during high school. Wears multiple hats at LOG, including tech support, organizing, set up and clean up, and generally doing whatever needs to be done. Her favorite part of LOG is getting to know the teens and organizing our annual Rummage Sale.

LuAnn Miller (LOG Mom 18 years, Goleta Presbyterian Church): Retired Executive Director of Isla Vista Youth Projects. She is one of our LOG Moms who prepare all of the LOG meals and take care of the students during the weekend. She has 2 sons who are both former LOG student Co-Leaders. Her favorite part of LOG is sharing the energy, faith, and hope of the teens, and cooking for them.

Julie Roth (LOG Mom, 22 years, Goleta Presbyterian Church): Works for local software company QAD. She has 2 children (both former LOG leadership team members), and 3 grandchildren. Her favorite part of LOG is seeing God's love touch and change hearts of the LOG teens.

Janet Votaw (LOG Mom, 16 years, Goleta Presbyterian Church): Retired Systems Engineer from Raytheon. She has 2 daughters (Miranda above; other is a past LOG student Co-Leader). Her favorite part of LOG is all the love shared during the retreat.

Stacy Radujko (LOG Mom, 4 years, Free Methodist Church): Works at Kellogg Elementary school as a Crossing Guard and Yard Duty Supervisor. Has two sons (Ryan above, & other is a past LOG student Co-Leader). She has always believed that God does a mighty work through all involved in LOG, & is so thankful to be a part of the LOG family.
